

Patient Consent Form for Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

Privacy of your personal information is an important part of our office providing you with quality naturopathic care. We understand the importance of protecting your personal information. We are committed to collecting, using and disclosing your personal information responsibly. We will try to be as open and transparent as possible about the way we handle your personal information. All staff members who come in contact with your personal information are aware of the sensitive nature of the information that you have disclosed to us. They are trained in the appropriate use and protection of your information.

Our privacy policy outlines what we are doing to ensure that:

Only necessary information is collected about you;

We only share your information with your consent;

Storage, retention and destruction of your personal information complies with existing legislation and privacy protection protocols;

Our privacy protocols comply with privacy legislation and standards of our regulatory body, the Board of Directors of Drugless Therapy - Naturopathy.

How our Clinic Collects, Uses and Discloses Patients' Personal Information

We understand the importance of protecting your personal information. To help you understand how we are doing that, we have outlined how our office is using and disclosing your information. The clinic will collect, use and disclose information about you for the following purposes:

- To assess your health concerns
- To provide health care
- To advise you of treatment options
- To establish and maintain contact with you
- To send you newsletters and other information mailings
- To remind you of upcoming appointments
- To communicate with other treating health-care providers
- To allow us to efficiently follow-up for treatment, care and billing
- To complete claims for insurance purposes
- To invoice for goods and services
- To process credit card payments
- To collect unpaid accounts
- To comply with all regulatory and legal requirements including court orders, statutory requirements to advise authorities of child abuse and reporting diseases and individuals who may be an imminent threat to harm themselves or others
- To use for educational and research purposes (this includes case summaries, photographs, lab results and other pertinent medical information). Your identity will be protected at all times and if necessary, identifying information will be altered to protect your privacy in all the above instances

By signing this Patient Consent Form, you have agreed that you have given your consent to the collection, use and/or disclosure of your personal information as outlined above.
